

The Rasmussen Family Boys.

By Frank E. Rasmussen

I had three older brothers that was in the service during World War II. Fred was in the Army - Harry was in the Airforce and Charles was in the Army.

All three are Deceased Now. I'm sure if they were alive today they would ^{have} lots of stories to tell about World War II.

I myself was in the Army during the Korean War and didn't get to talk to my older brothers much about the War.

By the time I got out of the service they were married and gone on with their lives. Fred in Colo. Harry in Calif. & Charles in Nebraska.

My three younger brothers. John was in the Marines, Edward was in the Army. Both of them during the Viet Nam. Edward was hurt badly during his 2nd stay in Viet Nam and is now deceased.

My third brother Gary was in the Army during Desert Storm.

My Brother David was the only one of us eight boys that wasn't in the service due to bad hearing.

I believe this is quite a military service record for one family and we were all proud of our time in the service.
