

A NAVY "MISSING" LIST

ONE HUNDRED TWO MISSOURIANS ARE INCLUDED.

Eleven Men From Greater Kansas City in the Group—Covers Period From December 7 to April 15.

The Navy department last night issued a list of men reported missing from December 7 to April 15, including ninety-nine men and three officers from Missouri, and sixty-two men (no officers) from Kansas.

Eleven of the men are from Greater Kansas City, and three others from this immediate vicinity. Six of these are from Kansas City, Mo. They are:

BASIL C. BUNYARD, electrician's mate first class; wife, Mrs. Vera Bunyard, 3531 Gladstone boulevard.

LLOYD L. DARLING, machinist's mate, first class; mother, Mrs. Anna Darling, 8102 Wayne avenue.

ROBERT HALE, fireman; father, William R. Hale, 217 South Hardy avenue.

BILLY H. HALL, fireman; father, Hugh H. Hall, 1836 Washington street.

TED HALL, private, marine corps reserve; parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Hall, 2718 East Fortieth street.

ALBERT M. KELLEY, musician; mother, Mrs. D. W. Hobart, Kansas City.

North Kansas City.

CRAWFORD E. SCOTT, private first class, marine corps; parents, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Scott.

Jackson County, Missouri.

JAMES C. EWING, seaman; mother, Mrs. Glennie A. Ewing, Oak Grove.

Kansas City, Kansas.

SHIRLEY O. DAY, water tender, second class; mother, Mrs. Ada Day, 3014 North Ninth street.

LEE F. FERREIRA, seaman, second class; mother, Mrs. Rose E. Ferreira, 1206 South Thirty-fourth street.

HARRY THERON KELLEY, seaman, second class; father, Eice Kelley, Argentine.

LAWRENCE G. WEISS, gunner, first class; mother, Mrs. Agnes Weiss, 104 South Seventeenth street.

Wyandotte County, Kansas.

CHARLIE M. FRAME, radioman, first class; father, Baines Frame, Bonner Springs.

Johnson County, Kansas.

SAM W. WOOD, chief water tender; wife, Mrs. Leta M. Wood, Olathe.

Wyandotte County, Kansas.

Missourians and Kansans Missing.

(By the Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, May 14.—The names of 102 Missourians, including three officers, and sixty-two enlisted men from Kansas, listed by the navy as missing since war broke out, were contained in a casualty list released tonight.

[In the following list Eastern Missouri has been excluded, those from Kansas City, Kansas City, Kansas, and the adjacent area are listed elsewhere.]

MISSOURI.

Lieut. Phillip Grant Wild, jr., Spickard. Ensign James Thurman, Plattsburg. Lieut. James Franklin Hughes, jr., medical corps, Marshall.

Floyd Armour, St. Joseph. Wayne Stratton Baker, Springfield. William Dildine Beattie, Pierce City. Robert B. Boswell, Branson. John Bradford Clifton, jr., Mountain View.

Joseph Robert Coble, Springfield. James Harold Connell, Centertown. James Love Copeland, Tarkio. Loren Eugene Dale, Adrian. Charles Patrick Dinan, Monett. Everett Kae Donahue, Maryville. Buel Ragan Fannon, Vichy. Jordan Joseph Garrett, Quin. Charles Eugene Gilmore, St. Joseph. John Leonard Gowen, Neelville. Eugene Edward Helms, Altamont. Cpl. Frank O. Holsinger, Hannon. Raymond George Jordan, Lexington. Paul Grant King, Marcelline. William Albert Kirk, St. Joseph. Robert Thomas Llewellyn, Macon. Willard Alvin Newton, North Salem. Charles Earl Parsons, Leflin. Loys Alovisius Parsons, Leflin. James Arthur Reynolds, Springfield. Ralph Riddlesperger, Everton. Clinton Anderson Shettlesworth, St. Joseph.

Thornton Elborn Singleton, Girdner. Robert William Smith, Lockwood. Lonnie Dowl Sweringen, Oregon. Archie Harrison Terry, Gallatin. Robert Lee Wilder, Jefferson City. Harold Williams, Springfield. Marshall Eugene Windham, Reed Springs. Harold Zeorlin, St. Joseph.

Aaron Milo Albert, storekeeper, 2d class, Pittsburg. Harold Sidwell Albers, aviation machinist's mate, Pittsburg. Charles Wilbur Alford, bugler, Osawatimie. Robert Benton Armstrong, boilermaker, Stafford. Jessie Glen Belcher, seaman, Neodesha. Elmer Marsden Bell, machinist's mate, Newton. Oscar Huron Bird, seaman, Lincoln. William Albert Boone, ship's cook, Sharon Springs.

Herbert Lyle Bruce, seaman, Arlington. James Enos Campbell, seaman, Oxford. Howard R. Charles, private, 1st class, marine corps, Hutchinson. Donald Dean De Moss, seaman, Hoisington. Maryle LeRoy Drake, radioman, Johnson. Marion Thomas Earhart, signalman, Troy. Elmer Marcena Ebaugh, seaman, Stockdale. Carl Douglas Fairbanks, fireman, Emmett. Gene Fanghor, gunner's mate, Leavenworth. John Arthur Fast, pharmacist's mate, Wichita. Harold Chester Feese, chief electrician's mate, Arlington. Clarence Clinton Foster, machinist's mate, Irving. Harlan Milton Frantz, storekeeper, Junction City. Gerald Victor Gieselman, electrician's mate, Russell Springs. Blaine Elijah Hardesty, seaman, Salina. Ramon Charles Hartenberg, boatswain's mate, Newton. Forest Vergil Ebaugh, seaman, Stockdale. Edwin Fay Hooper, seaman, Wichita. Lloyd Raymond Hooper, aviation machinist's mate, Ellsworth. George Alva Howrey, jr., electrician's mate, Douglass. William Sheldon Keast, seaman, La Crosse. Donald Paul King, metalsmith, Potwin. Raymond Lee Roy Klymaszewski, ship's cook, Easton. William Jacob Kovarnik, chief machinist's mate, Abilene. Ray Herman Lockhart, seaman, Wichita. Laurence Gilbert Louis, gunner's mate, Florence. James Elroy McClaskey, seaman, Horton. Herbert Walter Monk, fireman, Yates Center. Claude Eugene Parker, seaman, Lawrence. Fred Dalton Price, seaman, Kingman. Fred B. Quick, jr., private, marine corps, Atchison. Elbert Leister Reves, radioman, Pleasanton. Frank Rhodes, water tender, Louisburg. William George Riley, seaman, Wichita. Harry Woodrow Salyer, seaman, Valley Falls. Purdy Adolf Sharp, pharmacist's mate, Hutchinson. Warren G. Shetter, storekeeper, Hiawatha. Carl Francis Smith, seaman, Ada. Loren Robert Smith, fireman, Goodland. William John Stewart, seaman, Cherryvale. Lee Ervin Taylor, storekeeper, Kiowa. Eldro Walter Thompson, seaman, Garnett. Noah David Vaughn, machinist's mate, Coeyville. Robert Elwood Ward, gunner's mate, Topeka. Dale Edwin Westwood, radioman, Howard. Howard Omar Whan, torpedoman, Plains. William Franklin Whitford, seaman, Arkansas City. Harold Melvin Woods, seaman, Broughton.

Manila bay area. He enlisted in 1932.

KANSAS.

time junior high school. He is 20 years old and enlisted in January. Wood, whose home is listed as Olathe, enlisted in the navy eighteen years ago. His wife, who lives in Los Angeles, is the former Leta McIlvain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. McIlvain, of Olathe. Relatives in Olathe were notified last March that Wood had been reported missing in action.

Scott, 21, had been assigned to the Battleship Arizona, sunk by Japanese bombs in the initial attack on Pearl Harbor. At one time he was orderly to Admiral Isaac Campbell Kidd, who was killed in action. Scott attended North Kansas City

Manila bay area. He enlisted in 1932.

Theodore W. Larson, who was graduated from Westport high school in 1938, a member of the United States marine corps communication service, was reported missing in action May 12 by the Navy department. Larson was on duty at Corregidor when the fort fell. Notice was sent his father, Herman T. Larson, petty officer (first class), who is on active duty at the naval training school at Toledo.

William J. McKinley, 22 years old, a marine corps corporal, was reported missing in action yesterday in a no-

Manila bay area. He enlisted in 1932.

Theodore W. Larson, who was graduated from Westport high school in 1938, a member of the United States marine corps communication service, was reported missing in action May 12 by the Navy department. Larson was on duty at Corregidor when the fort fell. Notice was sent his father, Herman T. Larson, petty officer (first class), who is on active duty at the naval training school at Toledo.

William J. McKinley, 22 years old, a marine corps corporal, was reported missing in action yesterday in a no-

Manila bay area. He enlisted in 1932.

Theodore W. Larson, who was graduated from Westport high school in 1938, a member of the United States marine corps communication service, was reported missing in action May 12 by the Navy department. Larson was on duty at Corregidor when the fort fell. Notice was sent his father, Herman T. Larson, petty officer (first class), who is on active duty at the naval training school at Toledo.

William J. McKinley, 22 years old, a marine corps corporal, was reported missing in action yesterday in a no-

Manila bay area. He enlisted in 1932.

Theodore W. Larson, who was graduated from Westport high school in 1938, a member of the United States marine corps communication service, was reported missing in action May 12 by the Navy department. Larson was on duty at Corregidor when the fort fell. Notice was sent his father, Herman T. Larson, petty officer (first class), who is on active duty at the naval training school at Toledo.

William J. McKinley, 22 years old, a marine corps corporal, was reported missing in action yesterday in a no-

Manila bay area. He enlisted in 1932.

Theodore W. Larson, who was graduated from Westport high school in 1938, a member of the United States marine corps communication service, was reported missing in action May 12 by the Navy department. Larson was on duty at Corregidor when the fort fell. Notice was sent his father, Herman T. Larson, petty officer (first class), who is on active duty at the naval training school at Toledo.

William J. McKinley, 22 years old, a marine corps corporal, was reported missing in action yesterday in a no-

Manila bay area. He enlisted in 1932.

Theodore W. Larson, who was graduated from Westport high school in 1938, a member of the United States marine corps communication service, was reported missing in action May 12 by the Navy department. Larson was on duty at Corregidor when the fort fell. Notice was sent his father, Herman T. Larson, petty officer (first class), who is on active duty at the naval training school at Toledo.

William J. McKinley, 22 years old, a marine corps corporal, was reported missing in action yesterday in a no-

Manila bay area. He enlisted in 1932.

Theodore W. Larson, who was graduated from Westport high school in 1938, a member of the United States marine corps communication service, was reported missing in action May 12 by the Navy department. Larson was on duty at Corregidor when the fort fell. Notice was sent his father, Herman T. Larson, petty officer (first class), who is on active duty at the naval training school at Toledo.

William J. McKinley, 22 years old, a marine corps corporal, was reported missing in action yesterday in a no-

Manila bay area. He enlisted in 1932.

Theodore W. Larson, who was graduated from Westport high school in 1938, a member of the United States marine corps communication service, was reported missing in action May 12 by the Navy department. Larson was on duty at Corregidor when the fort fell. Notice was sent his father, Herman T. Larson, petty officer (first class), who is on active duty at the naval training school at Toledo.

William J. McKinley, 22 years old, a marine corps corporal, was reported missing in action yesterday in a no-

Manila bay area. He enlisted in 1932.

Theodore W. Larson, who was graduated from Westport high school in 1938, a member of the United States marine corps communication service, was reported missing in action May 12 by the Navy department. Larson was on duty at Corregidor when the fort fell. Notice was sent his father, Herman T. Larson, petty officer (first class), who is on active duty at the naval training school at Toledo.

William J. McKinley, 22 years old, a marine corps corporal, was reported missing in action yesterday in a no-