

Bronze Stars long overdue

Pictured are several of the Kingsbury County American Legionnaires who received long overdue Bronze Stars during the county meeting in Oldham recently. All had served in WWII, and received their medals for meritorious service during combat. Awarding the medals were E. F. Wilkinson of DeSmet, at left, who is the county veterans' service officer, and State Commander Bob Searl of Humboldt, at right. Those who received their stars during the county meeting were Bob Lee of Arlington, second from left; Hubert Kazmerzak of Erwin; Louie Wendell of DeSmet; Levi Palmlund of DeSmet; Helge Larson of Arlington and Art Van Moorlehem of Arlington. Not pictured were Donald Rowbotham and Clair Madsen of Arlington and Dale Hendricks of Badger.
