

"The Flying Coyotes" is the prize-winning sobriquet bestowed upon the V-5 United States naval reserve unit, created by the Sioux Falls Elks club, in a name contest won by Eileen Dyce, 135 South Prairie ave. Miss Dyce will receive a $25 war savings bond, Ev Hetland, Elks club secretary, announced late Saturday. Second prize of $10 in war stamps went to Mrs. H. D. Lynn, 114 East Twentieth st., for her suggestion, "The Dakota Badmen."

Second row—Milton Reynolds, V-5 president; Dwain Dedrick, Homer Berdahl, Gene Paulson, Lloyd Olson, Jack Twedell, Jack Stone, Elwood Wilson and Dwight Graham.
